County told debris must be removed

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors is facing two problems regarding clean-up from Hurricane Juan—lack of a permit for a dumpsite and funding.

On Friday, the supervisors learned that they will have to move about 3,000 yards of debris deposited in a private dumping site in Waveland.

According to Beat Four Supervisor Sam Perniclaro, a Bureau of Marine Resources inspector has notified the county that the debris, about half of the more than 6,000 yards already dumped into the site, is in wetlands.

The county failed to contact either the bureau or the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers about the use of the wetlands site.

Perniclaro said the county has permission from the owner to use the site.

"It's all a misunderstanding. We thought the owner had the permits," the supervisor explained.

The county and the City of Waveland, which has dumped debris from both Hurricane Elena and Hurricane Juan into the wetlands, have until April 15 to move the debris.

The moving costs for the county will be about $3,000.

In addition, the county is running out of clean-up funds.

Work by contracted laborers was temporarily halted Thursday while the supervisors evaluated the cost of work done so far.

Work not covered by regular county road and bridge funds has amounted to about $17,000, Perniclaro said.

The board had set aside $25,000 in interest from the county's general fund account for clean-up. Efforts to haul away debris were resumed Friday but contractors will be laid off when the $25,000 runs out.

The board had received no word Friday on whether the county had been declared a disaster area, but Federal Emergency Management Agency personnel made another inspection of Beach Road Friday morning to assess damage.

NSTL to host Partner in Progress kickoff

The public is invited to attend the kickoff presentation Nov. 14 of the Partners in Progress program sponsored by the National Space Technology Laboratories and the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

The program begins at 9:30 a.m. and will be in the Visitors Center auditorium.

The goal of this joint effort is to promote the overall economic growth, educational progress and social and political health and stability throughout the area.

Several topics will be addressed in the morning briefings, including how to do business with NSTL agencies, employment opportunities and procedures, tourism and the educational outreach programs.

Optional afternoon workshops will allow participants to discuss contracting, procurement, job information, technology transfer and government relations with NSTL agency heads and other senior officials.

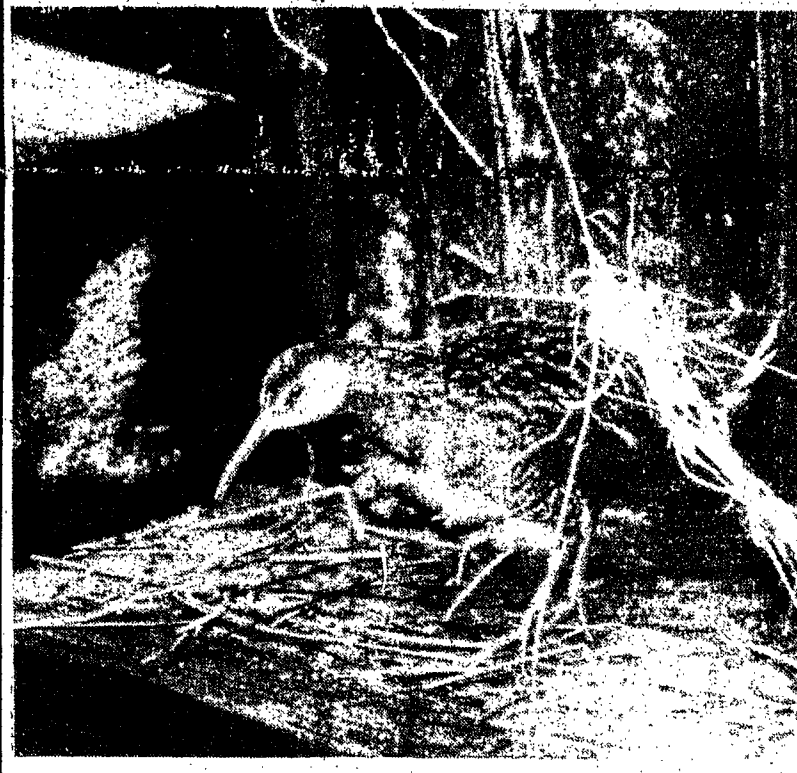

Tours of the Teacher Resource Center, the Visitors Center and the NSTL installation will also be available on an optional basis.

Capt. Roger Onorati, commanding officer of the Naval Ocean Research and Development Activity, will open the program. He also serves as chairman of the chamber's NSTL Affairs committee.

NSTL Director Jerry Hlass will welcome the participants who will also hear remarks by John Mason, president of the Hancock chamber.

Wastewater district, county to work out sewerage problems

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors and the Waveland Regional Wastewater Management District is planning a joint effort designed to resolve problems with obtaining sanitation permits needed to sell property not served by central sewerage.

The supervisors and wastewater district representatives met on the problem Friday with State Senator Gene Taylor and representatives of the State Health Department, Mississippi Research and Development Center and State Bureau of Pollution Control.

Taylor said he had met with the State Health Department and BPC officials earlier to discuss the problem, which had been presented to the supervisors last month by a group of realtors.

The group's spokesman, Delmer Wilcox of Waveland, said that septic tanks are no longer being permitted in the county. Requests for approval of alternate individual onsite wastewater treatment systems have also been refused.

Health Department officials said current law provides for permitting of alternate systems only in isolated rural areas.

Realtors, however, contended that the people who wish to sell their property can not do so at present because federal financing can not be obtained without sanitation permits.

On Friday, local officials learned that if they comply with several State Bureau of Pollution Control stipulations, permitting may be turned over to the wastewater management district and the board of health regulations may be bypassed as a temporary solution.

The only permanent solution, according to Bureau Representative Barry Royals, is central sewerage.

Several of the county's more densely populated subdivisions are targeted for central sewerage under a wastewater district project that will also eventually link the wastewater treatment systems for Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

According to Wastewater District Chairman John Longo Jr., sewerage for the entire county was addressed in a study conducted during the planning stages of the project, although only four subdivisions were selected for possible funding.

Beachfront hearing unaffected by Taylor employment change

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Beachfront Technical Advisory Council's Thursday night public hearing is expected to be unaffected by a change in contracts concerning one of the council members.

Jeff Taylor, one of the major planners involved in the beachfront repair project, was recently fired by Gulf Regional Planning Commission and has been hired by South Mississippi Planning and Development District.

Jerry Mitchell of Bureau of Marine Resources, which is funding the study that has resulted in formulation of plans to be presented Thursday, said the bureau has terminated a contract with Gulf Regional and is negotiating one with SMPDD.

Mitchell said the move must be approved by the bureau's commission at its next meeting.

However, he stated that the bureau's contract with Gulf Regional had stipulated that Taylor be the sole source of input on the beachfront project.

Firing Taylor amounted to breach of contract, he said.

Taylor said he feels that Hurricane Juan has affected the project much more than his change in employment.

"I feel the hurricane has gotten the attention of the Federal Highway Administration, Federal Emergency Management Agency and Mississippi Emergency Management Agency."

"Maybe we will see this culminate in eventual repair of Beach Road," he explained.

The road and beach were extensively damaged by the storm, he added.

The hearing is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. in the courtroom of the Hancock County Courthouse. Its agenda includes presentation of a master plan for beachfront development and repair.

Currently, the advisory council is looking at repairing the beach for shore protection and erosion control only in residential areas and developing recreational facilities along downtown Bay St. Louis and the front of Buccaneer State Park.

Council Chairman John Scafide Jr. said consultants will present various aspects of the plans, including road protection, erosion control, permanent maintenance and funding.

He said he also feels that public interest in the project has been increased by the recent hurricane.

County Agent's Notes

By Lee Taylor

Hurricane Elena caused a great deal of damage to timber along the Gulf Coast. This influx of timber was not helpful as prices were already low for forestry products.

Wednesday, Nov. 13 at 7 p.m. at the Kiln Farm Bureau, a forestry meeting will be held concerning storm damaged timber. I. Winston Savelle, Area Extension Forester, will explain casualty losses, gains, reforestation and new tax laws dealing with forestry.

If you have timber that was damaged during the storm you should attend this meeting.

EXTEND WINTER PASTURE BY LIMIT GRAZING

Winter pasture crops are generally growing well though some have been set back by the recent heavy rains from the late season Hurricane "Juan." Where grass is growing good, it is tempting to turn cows in full-time and not bother with limit grazing.

However, to justify expensive winter pasture for brood cows, they should be grazed only a limited period of time each day according to Bill McKie, Area Agronomy Specialist.

Where "Blast" disease on ryegrass has been a problem and infested grass has been grazed off. A system for limiting grazing may be the only feasible method to provide all animals some grass during the winter. Where this is the situation, grazing management will need to be developed on a field by field basis.

Well fertilized winter pasture provides a very high quality forage that adequately meets a brood cow's energy and protein needs according to Extension Animal Scientists.

Cost per animal unit is usually an important consideration when wintering brood cows on winter grazing. Well fertilized winter pastures contains 20 percent or more protein and up to 70 percent total digestible nutrients (energy).

Animal Scientists report that cows grazing full-time will get about twice their protein needs and 60-80 percent more energy than is needed. For full-time grazing a mature cow with calf requires from 1.0 to 1.25 acres. Limit grazing provides a management tool to get the most efficient results from grazing winter pasture crops at the least cost per cow unit.

Cattlemen experience backed by research results show that a cow with a young calf can be wintered on one fill or 2-4 hours grazing each day plus a partial feeding of fair quality hay or silage. Trampling and contamination from manure are greatly reduced when animals are grazed only long enough to get a fill.

Animal Nutritionists recommend no additional protein supplement be fed to cows getting a daily fill from fertilized winter pasture. In fact, the danger of nitrate poisoning may be increased where supplements formulated with a high percentage of urea as a protein source are fed on highly nitrated forage crops caution these specialists.

As cattle catch up with available forages and weather is less favorable for plant growth, cattlemen often graze every other day. Where a good quality hay or silage is available for feeding on no-grazing days, the body condition of the animals usually will determine the usefulness of alternate-day grazing.

To assure that calves grow-off properly and that cows rebreed on time, a good level of nutrition must be maintained. Give calves full-time access to grazing using creep gates.

Good grazing management is needed to assure adequate forage will be available when needed. Delay grazing until crop has 6 to 8 inches top growth so plants can develop a good root system.

Clovers growing with grass crops need to be 3-5 inches tall when grazing begins. However, graze before grass gets tall enough to smother young clover plants. On prepared seedbed plantings, with average growing conditions, one acre of well fertilized winter pasture should provide adequate grazing for two cows with calves for one good fill each day.

Overseeded bahiagrass or bermudagrass sods usually will not provide this level of grazing until January or later depending on method of seeding, fertility level and general growing conditions.

Proper grazing practices can greatly increase the forage available during late January and February which should reduce the overall wintering costs and help assure adequate herd nutrition.

Stephen Edds elected chairman of the Miss. Arts Council

Stephen Edds, a partner in the law firm of Gholson, Hicks & Nichols in Columbus, Miss., was recently elected chairman of the Mississippi Arts Commission. He succeeds former chairman Aubrey K. Lucas.

Appointed to the commission by former Governor William Winter, Edds will serve on the commission until 1988. Each year three new commission members are appointed by the governor to serve five-year terms.

Commenting on his selection as commission chairman Edds said, "Because of our cultural and artistic heritage, Mississippi has a base on which the development and stimulation of the arts is unlimited. To serve as chairman of the commission is a challenge which I readily and enthusiastically accept."

"Having had a lifelong love of the arts as an observer and appreciator, I was honored and elated with the opportunity of becoming involved in the arts on a statewide basis when I became a commissioner two years ago. Since that time, many positive changes have occurred at the Mississippi Arts Commission."

"I look forward to working with a staff and commission which are overflowing with innovative ideas and who possess unlimited enthusiasm. The arts in Mississippi are on a threshold of an exciting new day and to play a small role at this time is a privilege which I look forward to," said Edds.

Edds earned both the bachelor of arts and doctor of jurisprudence degrees from the University of Mississippi where he was elected to Omicron Delta Kappa, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and the University of Mississippi Hall of Fame.

He is active in many community organizations in the Columbus area and has held numerous leadership positions. Edds is clerk of St. Paul's Episcopal Church Vestry and serves the Columbus Civic Arts Council as president.

Edds is a member of the Lowndes County, Mississippi State, and American Bar Associations. He currently serves the Mississippi State Bar Association as president of the Young Lawyers Section, and is a member of the Board of Bar Commissioners.

He served as chairman of the Ethics Committee for the Mississippi State Bar Association. From 1980-82, he represented Mississippi and Louisiana as executive council member of the American Bar Association.

Hancock County needs help now

Hurricane Juan showed no mercy to the seawall in Hancock County.

The wind-driven, above-normal tides battered the seawall for four days, leaving serious destruction along with tons and tons of debris.

Much damage to the seawall is visible from the top, and much more is hidden under the roadway in wash-outs.

It is estimated that 21,000 cubic yards of debris have already been removed by elected officials in Districts One and Four with about as much more still to be done.

The serious problem is that the county has run out of funds to continue the work.

Our seawall has not taken such a beating since Hurricane Camille in 1969 as it did in the four days from Juan, especially in Districts One and Four.

The area needs to be designated as a Disaster Area so our local officials can receive some aid in cleaning up the rest of the debris.

Following this, restoration of the roadway and seawall is a must.

The debris remaining still contains many dead animals drowned by the storm and this could become a health hazard for citizens.

Hancock County District One Supervisor Bert Courge reports it has cost officials an estimated $3 per cubic yard to remove the debris.

It is dangerous to drive down Beach Boulevard because of the many sections which were washed out, and the road could cave in at any time.

Beach Boulevard is the main artery to Buccaneer State Park and Bayou Cadet.

If something isn't done soon, traffic may have to be limited to autos only, and this could really cause citizens some inconveniences.

Beach public meeting set for Thursday

On Thursday, Nov. 14 at 7 p.m. in the Hancock County Courtroom a very important Public Meeting will be held.

The meeting sponsored by the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, Cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland and Bureau of Marine Resources will be for the discussion of a Beachfront Master Plan for Hancock County.

Several consultants from across the nation have been working with a group of citizens appointed by our political leaders for months to come up with a long range Beachfront Master Plan.

The citizens group is known as the Hancock County Technical Advisory Council (TAC).

Some input has been received from citizens via a recent survey on our beachfront and what they would like to see.

TAC members along with the consultants have reviewed the survey and suggestions made by those responding.

The Public Meeting on Thursday is to explain the suggestions and receive more input from citizens.

The Bureau of Marine Resources is responsible for the securing of the funding necessary for this long range study.

You note, long range study, as our political leaders many times are accused of looking at today only and not tomorrow.

This long range plan is very important to all residents of Hancock County, as one of the main concerns is shore protection.

Hurricane Juan showed what can happen when there is nothing to protect our seawall. If you have enough nerve, you can drive down Beach Boulevard and see what a lack of shore protection can do during a hurricane.

This is your chance to express your opinions and you can tell your friends. Remind them of the importance of this public meeting, and most of all, come and express your opinion.

Power company asks customers to pay for hurricane damage

Mississippi Power Company has asked the state Public Service Commission for a two percent rate increase to help pay for damage to its system caused by Hurricane Elena. The $6.8 million request would raise utility charges by about $1.30 per month for the average residential customer, company officials said.

If granted, the request could go in effect in 30 days.

"We have not increased rates in more than three-and-a-half years," said Ed Blakeslee, Mississippi Power Company's vice president of rates and economic services.

"In fact, because of declining fuel costs our price for electricity has decreased since December 1983. Even with this increase our rates will still be four percent less than in 1983. I don't know of many products that cost less today than they did two years ago."

Blakeslee said the average residential customer purchases about 900 kilowatt-hours a month and that the increase would boost that bill from $55.28 to $56.58.

"Even with this increase our rates will still be far below the national average of $72.90 charged by other electric utilities for the same amount of electricity," Blakeslee said.

"We had no intention of increasing rates at all during 1985 and under normal circumstances we would not have even filed for this increase. But Hurricane Elena cost Mississippi Power Company more than $20 million in damages and lost revenues."

Mississippi Power Company's charge for residential customers who purchase electricity for space and water heating will edge up from $43.24 per month to $44.23 for 900 kilowatt-hours. This special rate applies for these customers' December through March.

"We've done a good job of keeping our rates stable and we don't like to file rate increases any more than our customers like to pay them," Blakeslee said.

"But, even with this small hike, our customers will still be paying some of the lowest electric rates in the nation. While expenses have been rising for the past three-and-a-half years, we have been able to actually reduce the price our customers pay for electricity. But Hurricane Elena makes this increase necessary at this time."

Public service commissioner says stockholders should pay

Lynn Havens, public service commissioner of the Southern District, issued the following statement concerning the Notice Filing of Mississippi Power Company filed with the commission Monday, Oct. 28.

"In the notice to change rates, Mississippi Power Company has petitioned this commission for the amount of $6,818,000 to recover the loss due to Hurricane Elena.

The total loss of Mississippi Power

Company was $20,220,000, according to company figures in which Mississippi Power Company only had in storm reserve $4,062,000 which leaves $16,158,000 as a loss due to Hurricane Elena.

As in the case of most utilities, they are self-insured and are allowed a certain portion each year to be placed into storm or damage reserve.

"In 1981, I voted to increase the amount of storm reserve, but no one could predict that we would have hurricanes this close together as Frederick and Elena and as this press release is being drafted, there is another one predicted to hit the Mississippi Gulf Coast, and the storm reserve appears to be inadequate.

"I have not had an opportunity nor has the staff had an opportunity to verify the accuracy of the figures that are included in Mississippi Power Company's filing, but on the surface, it appears that the figures would affect the average residential consumer a little less than a 2 percent increase or equivalent to about $1.30 a month.

"I have over the past years pointed a critical finger at Mississippi Power Company in some of their operations, but certainly I cannot fault them with the hurricanes. For some time now, I have been considering a major overhaul of the rate design of Mississippi Power Company and others.

"This commission and the consumers of this state have been besieged with rate increase requests. The consumers of our state are facing as much burden as they possibly can face for utility service.

"I am anticipating asking this commission to order Mississippi Power Company on a Show Cause Order to come before this commission in the next 60 days to look at a completely new rate design. The old rate design is based on the performance of how well the company does for the stockholders. It is time that is completely reversed and a rate design initiated to produce revenue based on how well they perform for the consumers whom they serve rather than the stockholders.

"I have not had an opportunity to discuss this with the other two commissioners, but the rate design that I have in mind is simply to say to the company that if you want to increase your earnings, you will operate by the old theory — money saved is money made.

"The ratepayer is not going to continue to take the 'hit' every time there is a minimal shortfall in revenue. I hope to initiate this action through this commission within the next few days because it is definitely time that this commission starts looking at this concept rather than continue to see record earnings for the stockholders while we drain the financial pocketbooks of ratepayers."

Matters of Health

AIDS UPDATE

Q. Has any progress been made in treating AIDS? I've read recently about a new blood test for AIDS. Does it actually tell whether the person has AIDS?

A. Acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, or AIDS, has struck more than 10,000 people in the U.S.

The disease is devastating because it affects the body's immune system to the point where it loses the ability to fight off common illness-bearing pathogens.

One of every two newly-diagnosed AIDS victims won't survive the year—most die within three years of diagnosis.

AIDS is thought to be caused by a virus and is transmitted only by intimate sexual contact or blood product transfusion. No evidence indicates that the AIDS virus has been transmitted in any other way.

Those at risk of contracting the AIDS virus include hemophiliacs, intravenous drug abusers, homosexual men with many sexual partners, and prostitutes.

Haitians recently were removed from the high-risk list by the Center for Disease Control.

Tests are being developed to detect the presence of the putative AIDS virus in individuals at risk.

A test for antibodies to the virus is presently used as a screening test on blood from donors.

Another test is more definitive and confirms the screening test results.

These screening tests, which only recently have been approved by the Federal Food and Drug Administration, do not test for the presence of the AIDS virus.

Instead, they function as indirect tests which look for the presence of antibodies to the virus. Antibodies are internal molecules produced in response to an infection and are designed to protect us from the invasion of disease-bearing organisms.

The screening test has been criticized because it may give false, positive results.

The test potentially can't cross-react with antibodies other than those directed against the putative AIDS virus. Physicians are unsure at this point of the extent to which such false positive reactions will occur.

There is also concern that the test results could be used for nonmedical purposes and strict guidelines are being developed by the government and by blood banks to handle this sensitive information.

The tests are being used in the blood banking community to screen donated blood. Neither test is actually a test for AIDS.

A second, more specific and expensive test will be performed in certain research laboratories to look more carefully at the positive blood donor screening tests. This second test will clarify any questionable false positive test results.

Not all people who have antibody to the "AIDS virus" actually acquire the disease. In fact, most don't. For unknown reasons, some people are able to keep the virus in check, while others resist the virus to a lesser degree, living disease-free most of the time.

AIDS related complex, or ARC, is a complex of clinical problems which appear to be associated with the possible, eventual onset of AIDS.

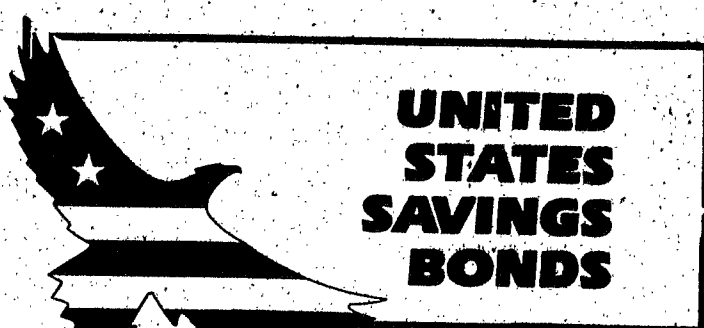

Oral thrush is one of those clinical conditions.

Infection of the mouth and, or, the esophagus, namely oral candidiasis as it is called medically, is seen primarily in leukemic and surgical patients and in others whose immune systems are compromised or suppressed, including pre-AIDS patients.

Eating may be a problem for those with oral candidiasis because of painful lesions of the mouth.

As a result of decreased food intake, malnutrition can be a serious complication in patients whose immune systems are compromised and can become yet another of the many deadly manifestations afflicting AIDS patients.

Write Hanoi campaign coincides with U.S. Veterans Day holiday Monday, Sept. 11

A nationwide "Write Hanoi" project is slated for the Veterans Day period to inundate the Vietnamese Mission to the United Nations with letters from citizens across the country showing support for the nearly 2,500 Americans who remain prisoner or missing in Southeast Asia.

Sponsored by the National League of Families, the "Write Hanoi" campaign is reminiscent of the campaign from the late '60s and early '70s, according to Jeanne Garcia, president of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 3253 Auxiliary.

Citizens of Hancock County are asked to write a letter to the Vietnamese Mission to the United Nations to express their concern over the fate of the men still prisoner or missing in Southeast Asia.

Eighteen of those men are from Mississippi. Letters to the Mission should then be mailed to Garcia at 502, US-90, Waveland, MS 39576.

According to the League of POW/MIA Families, the Vietnamese play particular attention to American public opinion.

"We know that the Vietnamese pay careful attention to the feelings of Americans. If we can flood the United Nations with millions of letters from concerned Americans, I believe it will help bring our men home. All it costs each person is a few minutes of time to write the letter, two envelopes, and 44 cents postage," Garcia said.

SAMPLE LETTER TO VIETNAMESE

SRV Ambassador
Vietnamese Mission to the United Nations
20 Waterside Plaza
New York, N.Y. 10010

Mr. Ambassador:

As an American citizen, I strongly urge that your government fulfill recent commitments to accelerate efforts to account for U.S. servicemen and civilians still missing in your country. While I am thankful for those you have returned, I am distressed that nearly 2,500 American families continue to suffer uncertainty about their missing loved ones.

Resolution of this humanitarian issue will aid in ending the misunderstanding that exists between our two countries and peoples. Genuine effort on your part to locate and repatriate Americans still in your country is, I believe, in the best interest of the Vietnamese people. Showing compassion for the plight of these men and their families will certainly create a better climate for inspired relations and trade between our two countries.

On Veterans Day November 11th, the Americans honor all fellow countrymen who have served in the Armed Forces of our nation. This year, we urge your government to return to our shores those American veterans still missing in your country.

Respectfully,
(Your name)

Hawks lose district title, prepare for Ladner Bowl

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
Taking the District 4A Championship title Friday night, the d'Iberville Warriors defeated the Hancock North Central Hawks, 36-8.

"We had some opportunities slip away from us in the game but I have to give credit where credit is due, d'Iberville is a really good team," Head Coach Irvin Favre said.

Hawk fans will have another opportunity to view the team in action in the 11th Wendell Ladner Bowl scheduled for Nov. 16 at 6 p.m.

In this game they will face the 7-2 Forrest County Agricultural High School from Brooklyn.

Team members voted Friday night to accept an invitation to play in the bowl game.

The Hancock team finished the regular season with the defeat by the Warriors, but did have a winning season record of six wins and three defeats.

"We had a very bad first half against d'Iberville and went to the locker room down by 20 points for the first time this season," he added.

"The Hawks were not used to being behind but kept their heads up and continued to play hard in the second half," Favre said.

Favre said some defensive adjustments made at halftime enabled the defense in the third quarter to be more stable.

"The momentum shifted a little after that fine run by Charles Burton and the fumble recovery," he said.

But after having the ball picked off and having to punt put things back on an even basis, he added.

"There is really no excuse, we just didn't do the job we were hoping we could do," Favre said.

"I'm disappointed we didn't have a good showing but am proud of the coaches and the team members," he said.

The Hawks prepared very hard and believed they could win came up against a team that just didn't make any mistakes or give any ground, he said.

"The key thing here is execution, we knew d'Iberville were good, but they executed better than they ever have before," Favre said.

Favre also said that one problem the Hawks had Friday night was being trapped by d'Iberville.

"They are the best trapping team on the coast and I wish them well in the south state playoffs," he said.

"We can hold our head high because even if we did get beat, we were beat by a very good team," Favre said.

Friday night, the Hawks just couldn't get things going in the first half as they punted away their first two possessions without gaining a first down.

In the first down of the next series the Hawks fumbled the ball and several d'Iberville players jumped in to recover.

Taking approximately seven minutes, the Warriors moved the ball from their own 28-yard line down the field to score from six yards out.

d'Iberville also scored on their next possession with Quarterback Rusty Waites taking it in on a keeper play.

Taking another Hawk fumble, the Warriors marched down the field again to score with Billy Goff going in from 12 yards out.

Behind 20-0, Hancock mounted a drive that netted two first and 10 calls before turning the ball over on downs.

The Warriors were stopped in their next possession and the Hawks final turn with the ball began with two minutes left in the half but they had to punt it away.

d'Iberville received the kickoff in the second half but lost it on downs.

Hawk player Charles Burton took the ball on a hand-off from Quarterback Brett Favre and dashed 75 yards for the first Hancock score.

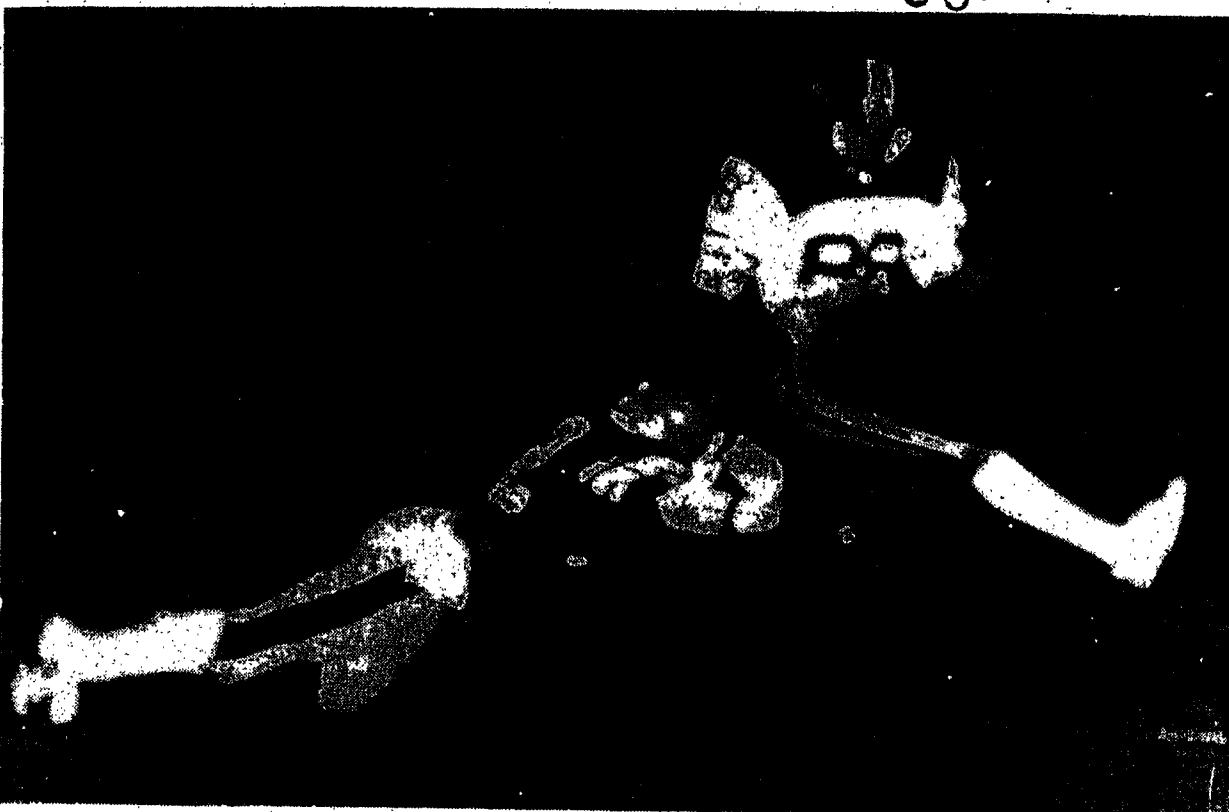

Another break for the Hawks came as they recovered a Warrior fumble. Hancock gained a first down before a Favre pass was intercepted.

Just 34 yards from the goal line, the Warriors took three plays to score and increase their lead to 28-8.

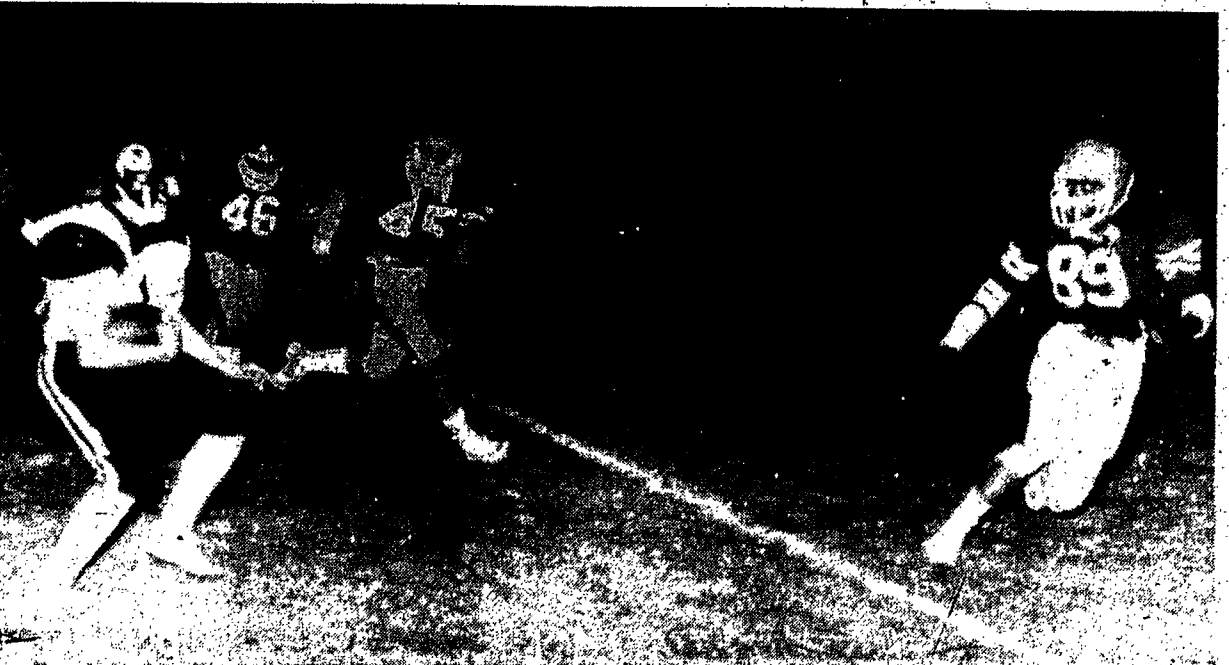

The next Hawk possession ended with an interception, ending the drive just a few yards from paydirt.

The Warriors had to punt it away but grabbed another one from the sky to regain possession leading to their final score.

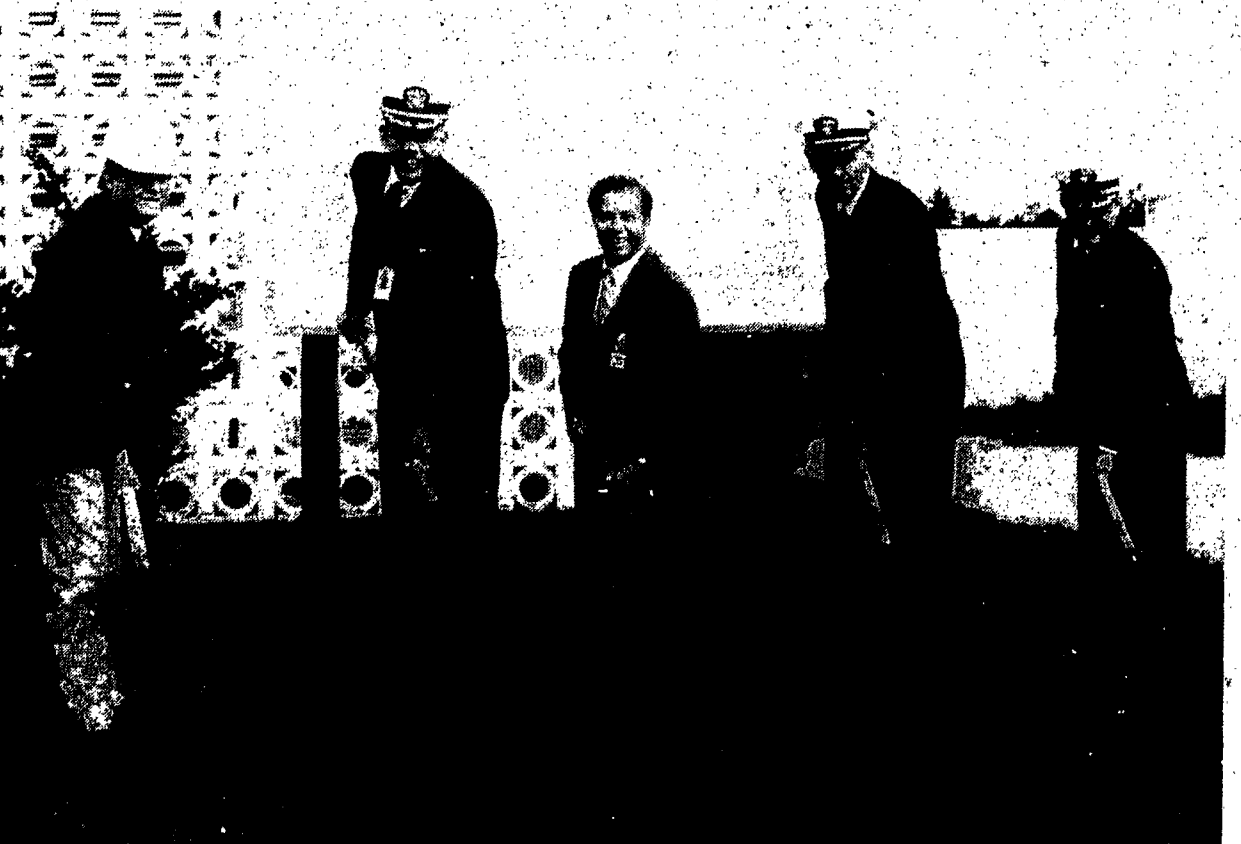

The final score of the game was 36-8.

GROUND-BREAKING—Participating in the ground-breaking ceremony for the computer complex addition for Naval Oceanographic Office at National Space Technology Laboratories are, from left, Vic Tilley, president of Tilley Constructors and Engineers, Inc.;

Captain James E. Koehr, commander, Naval Oceanography Command, NAVOCEANO's parent command; Jerry Hlass, NSTL director; Captain John M. Sears, NAVOCEANO commanding officer; Commander Roland A. Garcia, NORDA executive officer.

Navy to expand computer center

The Navy broke ground recently on an addition to the Naval Oceanographic Office's (NAVOCEANO) Central Computer Complex at the National Space Technology Laboratories in Hancock County.

The 12,640 square foot addition will be completed in December 1986. The building addition was designed by Architects Plus of Jackson and will be constructed by Tilley Constructors and Engineers, Inc., of Gulfport.

Expansion of the Navy's oceanographic data processing capabilities is related to Navy Secretary John Lehman's long term efforts to reinvigorate Naval Oceanography.

Such efforts are necessary to keep pace with the explosive growth in research and exploration in the world's oceans, and the rapidly increasing dependence of the U.S. national security on the seas.

The additional computer assets will be shared among various Navy users and the related academic research community. One of the chief users will be the Institute for Naval Oceanography which Lehman announced in July would be established at NSTL.

The Institute will develop advance global oceanographic and atmospheric prediction models. It is to be headed by the commanding officer of the Naval Ocean Research and Development Activity, also located at NSTL.

Participants in the Nov. 1 ground-breaking ceremony included Captain James E. Koehr, commander, Naval Oceanography Command, NAVOCEANO's parent command; Captain John M. Sears, NAVOCEANO commanding officer; Commander Roland A. Garcia, NORDA executive officer; Jerry Hlass, NSTL Director; and Vic Tilley, president of the construction firm.

NERVE IMPULSES

When we mention nerve impulses, confusion abounds. Simply because no one has seen them. Thus, a realistic picture is not available to our minds. Electrical currents are often pictured as being impulses because this current operates on many different appliances, just like nerve impulses operate on all body functions and parts. However, we know that nerve impulses are not electrical, but rather the intelligent internal life currents of the body. They are responsible for all constructive processes connected to body health and life. In fact, strictly from a scientific standpoint, upon death, all the organs and even the blood is still present, but we can no longer detect the nerve impulse. This has led our profession into the specialized technology of detecting life currents in the live body, and their interruption and helping the sick to recover and prolong life.

Five million copies rank AA's 'Big Book' among non-fiction, all-time best sellers

During the 50th anniversary celebration of the founding of Alcoholics Anonymous in Montreal this summer the five millionth copy of the 575 page, hard cover book "Alcoholics Anonymous" was presented to the non-alcoholic secretary who typed the original manuscript in 1939.

Ruth Hock, as the first employee of AA, saw and participated in many other early milestones of the flourishing fellowship's history.

According to a staff member of AA's General Service Office, the book has played a crucial role in the success and expansion of the AA program to its present world-wide prominence.

It describes the hard-won principles which early members discovered could lead to freedom from the bondage of alcohol, and which are the basis of the sobriety of millions of alcoholics who otherwise would have been doomed to the physical and emotional toll that is exacted of the alcoholic by the illness.

"Alcoholics Anonymous," known by AA's as the "Big Book," has appeared in 13 other languages - Afrikaans, Dutch, Finnish, Flemish, French, German, Icelandic, Italian, Japanese, Norwegian, Portuguese, Spanish and Swedish.

It is ranked among the hard-cover, non-fiction best sellers of all time.

The publication did not, however, have an auspicious beginning. The AA Fellowship numbered fewer than 100 members in 1938 when these pioneers decided to document their experiences in recovery from alcoholism.

The first printing was done on less than a shoestring and, for the next two years, the book attracted little attention and few sales.

The financial picture was stark; only loans from sympathetic friends kept the publishing venture alive.

Then in March, 1941 following publication of an article on AA by Jack Alexander in 'The Saturday Evening Post,' demand from desperate alcoholics put the sales on the accelerating curve they still follow today.

Originally priced at $3.50, the Big

Book still retails for only $5.65 ($4.65 for AA members), in the face of skyrocketing book costs.

Copies may be obtained by writing AA World Services, Inc., Box 459, Grand Central Station, New York, NY 10163.

For additional information or assistance from AA in the Hancock County area, call 255-3413.

SSC 31-yard line. Artin Whavers carried for a first down, and four plays later Brian Laneaux scored Bay High's third TD with an 11-yard run. Trace McRaney's extra point was good and the Tigers increased their lead to 20-0 at halftime.

The Rocks picked up two first downs in their initial possession in the third quarter, but safety Todd Mannion intercepted a halfback pass by YaSin Shabazz to stop the Rocks' only threat of the third quarter.

The Tigers relied mostly on their ground game with solid running by Laneaux, Lewis, Burton, and QB Quintin Bell.

SSC rose to the occasion defensively and stopped the Tigers on their 37-yard line. It took the Rockchaws six plays to score, with Todd Thrifley picking up a key first down to the Bay High 13-yard line.

A Dempsey to David Williams completion brought the ball to the five-yard line where Jimmy Dempsey kept off right tackle for the touchdown.

A two-point conversion by Dempsey to halfback Matt Caldwell was good and the Rocks closed the gap to 20-8 with a little over eight minutes left in the game.

Eric Doyle attempted an on-side kick that was recovered by the Tigers.

Quarterback Quintin Bell gained good yardage on a bootleg which brought the ball down to the SSC 25-yard line, but penalties against the Tigers brought the ball out of scoring range.

From this point, the Tigers controlled the football giving the Rocks one last chance to score with two minutes left in the game.

Facing a third and four, Jimmy Dempsey's pass to split end Zanca fell short and the Tigers took over and ran out the clock.

SSC ended their season 5-4, with victories over Mercy Cross, St. John, Riverdale, Pass Christian, and East Central.

The Bay High Tigers, now 8-1, face tough Purvis who until last Friday was undefeated. A 17-0 loss to Pearl River Central, whom the Tigers beat during the regular season, should set the stage for a hard-fought contest.

The District playoff game between Bay High and Purvis is scheduled next Saturday night at 7:30 at Purvis.

Bay High downs Rocks, 20-8

The Bay High Tigers scored 30 points in the first half and rolled to a 20-8 victory over cross-town rival St. Stanislaus Friday night in a game played at Tiger Stadium.

Two first quarter touchdown runs by Willie Lewis proved to be the winning points. Lewis capped a 60-yard drive with a five yard TD blast, then followed later in the quarter with a 40-yard explosion off left tackle.

Later in the second quarter, Brian Laneaux broke free for an 11-yard scoring run. Trace McRaney added two extra points to increase the Tigers' spread over the Rocks to 20 points at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Rocks drove 37 yards for their only score. A nice run by Todd Thrifflay and a pass reception by David Williams brought the ball down to the Bay High five-yard line where QB Jimmy Dempsey scored on a keeper.

SSC faked the extra point with Dempsey passing to Matt Caldwell for two points to close out the scoring for the evening.

"We played a pretty good game. Our boys came back after the big downfall we had last week and played real well," said Bay High Head Coach Cleveland Williams.

On the other sideline, Rockachew coach Vernon Powell complimented the Tigers. "They are a solid ball club. They came out on their first possession and drove the ball 69 yards. You have to respect a team that scores 20 first-half points on you."

Coach Powell added, "Overall, I was pleased with the effort we displayed this season although there were several disappointments."

Seniors Mike Yarborough, David Zanca, Lon Baxter, Todd Thrifflay, David Williams, and Jimmy Dempsey all had a good season for us, he said.

Bay High opened the scoring in the first quarter when Dennis Dear took the opening kickoff and returned it to his 31-yard line. The Tigers mounted an 11 play drive with Willie Lewis scoring from five yards out. Trace McRaney's extra point was good and the Tigers led 7-0.

The Rocks could not muster a first down on their initial possession and a 17-yard punt by Phil Wittmann gave the Tigers a first down on the SSC 30-yard line.

A holding penalty against the Tigers brought the ball back to the 40-yard line where Willie Lewis broke through the SSC defense for the Tigers second score in the first quarter.

McRaney's extra point was wide and the Tigers led 13-0.

SSC could not move the ball on their next possession and Matt Fairconnetie returned the punt to the Defensive play prevails in Pirate-Bearcat battle

By EDGAR H. PEREZ

A continuing succession of fumbles, interceptions, unsuccessful field goal attempts, blocked punt and touchdown called back turned a hard-fought Pass Christian-Long Beach high school football contest into a low-scoring whitewash with the Pirates on the losing end of a 7-0 final tally.

"This was one of our best games," said Pass head coach Alton Wright. "It's just a shame we didn't win—the Pirates played their hearts out."

"The whole team turned in an outstanding effort. I'm just disappointed we couldn't win but that's what the game is all about—you win some and some you don't."

"And we've got a tough one to look forward to this coming Friday against D'Iberville—they beat Hancock pretty good last night," Wright said Saturday morning.

Pass Christian meets D'Iberville there Friday in a make-up of their season opener which was cancelled due to Hurricane Elena.

At Bearcat Stadium Friday night, the Pirates opened the scenario of turnovers when they gave up the ball on a first down fumble early in the first quarter at their own 35.

Long Beach moved the ball to the Pirate 17 in six tries before their first unsuccessful attempt at a field goal on fourth down.

The Pirates took over at their own 20 and were intercepted on third down at the Pass 45.

The Bearcats turned the ball back over to the Pirates on downs at the Pirate 35, but took over again after two plays when quarterback Tyson McLain intercepted a J. W. Dedeaux pass at mid-field.

The Bearcats were forced to punt after three tries, giving the Pirates possession again at their own 35.

On first down, Dedeaux turned in a smashing 50-yard jaunt to the Long Beach 15-yard-line.

Tailback Vincent Henderson pushed to the Long Beach 10 and Dedeaux then scampered around left end for the Pirates' only score which was called back by the officials on a holding infraction.

The big men of the Bearcat line held the Pirates through eight goal-to-go plays in the series before a Dedeaux field goal attempt from the five went wide with seven minutes left in the first half.

Long Beach pushed up from the Pass 20 to the 39 in seven plays before being forced to punt.

Successively, the Pirates were also forced to punt, giving the Bearcats possession again on their own 36. That possession was good for one snap from center before Pirate center Michael Cook intercepted and returned the ball 15 yards to the Long Beach 35.

With the clock winding down, the Pirates were unsuccessful on three pass attempts before turning over the ball on downs as time ran out on the first half.

Long Beach kicker Darin Dean's PAT was good giving the 'Cats the 7-0 edge which sustained them through the outing.

Early in the fourth quarter, J. W. Dedeaux recovered a Long Beach fumble at the Pirate 45, setting up a sustained Pirate drive to the Long Beach 13.

Runs by Pirate tailback Winston Ausmer and a roughing-the-kicker call against Long Beach highlighted the 13-play series which ended with an incomplete pass to Manuel Dedeaux.

Dedeaux was shaken on the play when he took a late hit out of bounds from Fisher.

Less than three minutes remained when the Pirates bogged down at the 13, and Long Beach successfully ran out the clock on short runs.

long Beach welcomed their guests to the opening of the second half by fumbling on the kickoff. Pirate defensive center Horace Lizana recovered at the Long Beach 35.

But not wishing to hog the ball, Pass gave up the pigskin on a fumble at the Bearcat 38 two plays later.

Bearcat running back Byron Johnson picked up some 35 yards as Long Beach hammered away at a stubborn Pirate defense, driving in a dozen plays to the Pirate seven where they lost the ball on an incomplete fourth down screen pass.

The Pirates took over deep in their own territory and promptly fumbled the ball at the 12-yard-line.

And in spite of such luck, the indefatigable Pirate defense stalled the 'Cats at the 12, forcing them into another unsuccessful field goal attempt with four minutes left in the quarter.

With the 0-0 ball game apparently evolving into a struggle of defensive titans, Long Beach held the Pirates to the 20-yard-line and blocked Rod Jenkins fourth down punt, recovering the ball at the five.

With first down and five, Johnson capitalized on this opportunity to post the game's only touchdown with 2:41 left in the period.

Long Beach kicker Darin Dean's PAT was good giving the 'Cats the 7-0 edge which sustained them through the outing.

Dedeaux was shaken on the play when he took a late hit out of bounds from Fisher.

Less than three minutes remained when the Pirates bogged down at the 13, and Long Beach successfully ran out the clock on short runs.

As on the scoreboard, the Coast neighbors were essentially even in the statistics with Long Beach posting 10 first downs and Pass seven.

The Pirates picked up 122 yards rushing to 179 for the Bearcats.

The Pirates maintained superiority in the air with 88 yards gained on eight completions out of 19 attempts and two interceptions.

The Bearcats attempted 16, completed 5 with no interceptions for a total of 18 yards.

Pass averaged 30 yards on three punts and Long Beach averaged 20 on two.

Pass lost four fumbles and Long Beach lost one of two.

The Pirates were penalized 50 yards on four calls and the Bearcats lost 36 yards on five infractions.

Pearl River closes season in loss to East Mississippi

The Pearl River College Wildcats watched as East Mississippi scored on three of their final four possessions and upset the homestanding 'Cats 25-24.

A fourth quarter rally by EM quarterback Scott Berry, who threw the final two passes to Joseph Green for 12 points, pushed PRJC to a 3-7 season record in the closing game of the 1985 football season in Poplarville Nov. 2.

East Mississippi finished at 4-6. The Wildcats held a 7-0 halftime advantage thanks to a one-yard run by Chris Jones and a PAT from Adrian Lumpkin. The 30-yard, eight-play drive was started when Tommy Nash blocked an East Mississippi punt.

PRJC moved the score out to 10-0 on a 35-yard field goal by Lumpkin in the third quarter. The field goal was only the second field goal scored by the Wildcats during the season.

East Mississippi scored on a fumble recovery at the Pearl River 16, and then QB Kenny Bush hit Chris Johnson on 18-yard pass. Steve Jones kicked the PAT and East Mississippi had closed the gap to 10-7.

The Wildcats scored next on a 23-yard pass from Jason Martin to Zach Morris. Lumpkin's PAT placed the score at the end of the third quarter at 17-7.

The Wildcats would score for the last time in the 1985 season early in the fourth quarter on a 20-yard run from Rod Jefferson. Lumpkin's PAT made the score then at 24-7.

East Mississippi used Chris Johnson to get the first score of the final quarter on a one-yard run. The PAT was blocked by Robbie Cagle.

The next series ended on Dennis Rhodes' pass interception, but East Mississippi used passes of 34 and 18 yards to put the Wildcats away with the final score coming with nine seconds left in the contest.

Top rusher for the Wildcats was Marvin Houston with 111 yards on 38 carries, and Chris Jones with 80 yards on 28 carries. Jason Martin was 1-4 and one interception passing.

High-scoring Hawks close out Ninth Grade season

Hancock North Central's Ninth Grade Hawks closed their 1985 season Thursday with a 22-6 victory over D'Iberville.

The Hawks win gives them a 6-2 record for the season, a second place ranking in the Deep South Conference and the Hancock County Championship.

"We were just three points away from an undefeated season," observed Hawk coach Joe Shaw in noting the two losses came on a combined total of three points—a 14-12 loss to Storie County and a 13-12 defeat by St. Martin.

The Hawks scored a total of 187 points for a game average of 24 points while relinquishing a total of 56 points for a seven-point average. Season victories included Pearl River Central, 8-6; Pass Christian, 42-12; St. Stanislaus, 28-0; Long Beach, 43-0; George County, 20-6; and D'Iberville, 22-6.

Scoring in the first quarter of the D'Iberville game was HNC halfback Terrance Goff on a 30-yard run. The Hawks missed a two-point attempt.

D'Iberville's Paul Shoemaker scored in the second quarter on a 20-yard run. The point after kick missed the mark, leaving the combatants tied 6-6 at the half.

Hawk halfback Tim Cox scored on a 30-yard run in the third quarter, and quarterback Jeff Moran completed a two-point pass to Goff to put HNC out front 14-6.

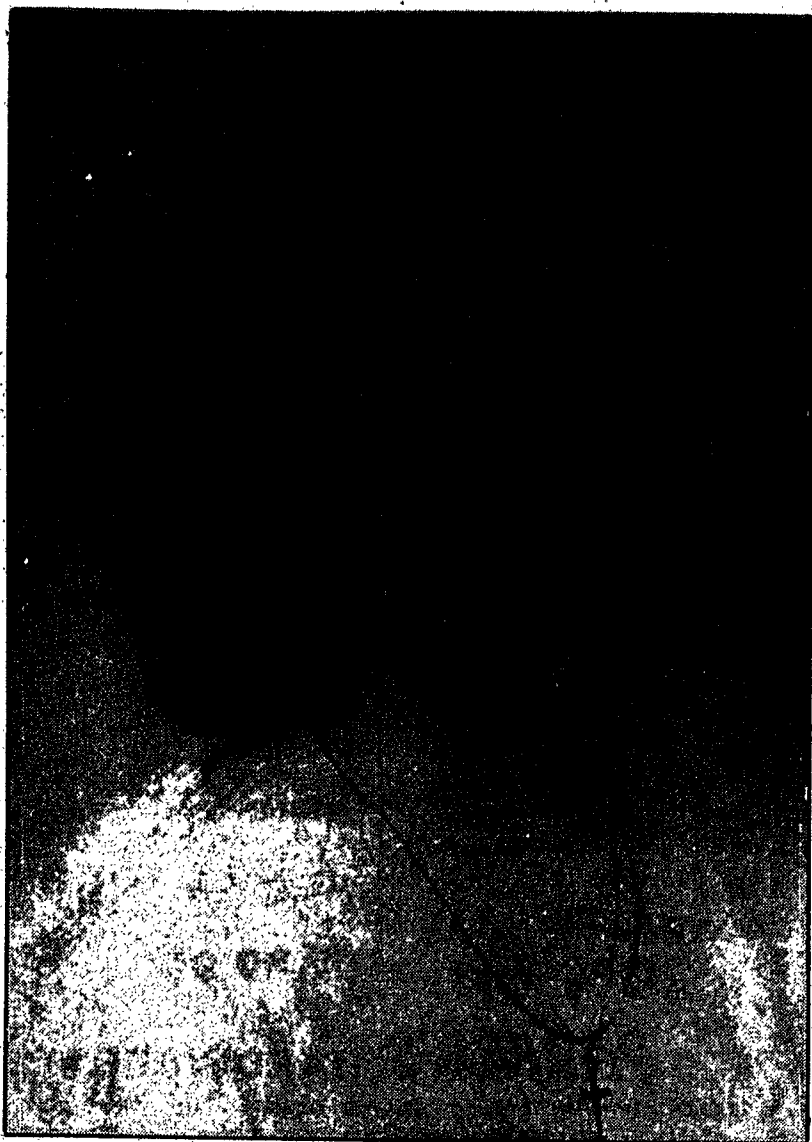

In the final period Cox scored again, this time on a four-yard plunge. Moran passed to fullback Guy Graham, fixing the 22-6 total for the outing.

Museum acquires furniture history resource material

The Mississippi Department of Archives and History has acquired a valuable new research tool for scholars and persons interested in furniture history.

Antique dealers, museum curators, old house restorers, and general historians will find the "Decorative Arts Trade Catalogs" of the Winterthur furniture collection, Winterthur Museum, Wilmington, Delaware, a resource in identification and authentication. Described as "museums in miniature," the microfiche catalogs (offering approximately 30,000 pages of information) function for researchers in several ways: as mini-textbooks of American economic history because they tell much about products, trademark images, and marketing; as reference works for stylistic and formal analyses of artifacts; as a graphics and advertising library; and as a two-dimensional museum of American arts and vernacular design.

Bay Little Theatre mounts drive for restoration project

The Bay St. Louis Little Theatre has begun restoration of its Boardman Avenue Playhouse.

The two-year project will include restoration of the theatre exterior. There will be a new entrance, new brick walkway and intermission patio, new roofing, siding repairs and landscaping.

According to Laurie Byrd, theatre president, "Our fund-raising goal of $25,000 will see us through this serious effort to return the theatre to its original state. The labor will be eighty percent volunteer with the remainder being contracted to professionals."

"A special production of 'Ladies of the Alamo' in November followed by 'Creating Christmas,' our first artists market, will kick off our fund raising efforts," said Byrd.

The three-play, regular season ticket sales provide funds for the day-to-day operation of the theatre, but do not generate funds for major maintenance or restoration.

"The Theatre is the cultural center of Bay St. Louis and to continue live theatre, exhibit the works of local artists, and to establish a concert series we have to begin this serious restoration effort now," said Mike Cuevas, member of the board of directors.

"The patrons of our theatre and the citizens of our community trust that their generosity will not be abused. The public has helped the theatre purchase additional ceiling fans, restore the lobby and buy additional lighting equipment. Their investment is returned by quality entertainment, a cultural asset they can be proud of, and a national recognition of community excellence in the arts," said Joe Marochino, theatre treasurer.

The public can look forward to many events sponsored by the theatre and its friends to encourage the arts and assist in the restoration of the theatre.

Anyone wishing to assist the theatre is asked to contact Mrs. Byrd c/o Bay St. Louis Little Theatre, P.O. Box 342, Bay St. Louis, MS 39520.

All contributions are tax deductible.

'Speaking Oracles of God'

—I Peter 4:11

By W. Edwin Kearley, Minister

501 Pine St.

Bay St. Louis

WHAT SHALL I DO WITH JESUS? (NO. 2)

"Let Him be crucified," was the cry of envy. Pilate sought to give the Jews a choice to release Jesus. Therefore, he gave them a choice between Barabbas, a notorious criminal, and Jesus.

"For he knew that for envy they had delivered him. When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, 'Have thou nothing to do with that just man; for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas and destroy Jesus. The governor answered and said unto them, 'Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you?' They say, 'Barabbas.' Pilate saith unto them, 'What shall I do with Jesus which is called Christ?' They all say unto him, 'Let Him be crucified.' And the governor said, 'Why, what evil hath he done?' But they cried out the more, saying, 'Let him be crucified.' (Matthew 27:18-23)

Others have been answering in the same way down through the centuries. Though their language may have been less offensive, the effect has been the same. If they had their way, there would be no Bible, no gospel, and no church.

The Jews were the people of God. The church is the people of God today. To the church the writer of Hebrews wrote, "For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the world to come, if they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance, seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame." (Hebrews 6:4-6)

Apostasy is a threat to every Christian. Paul said, "Where let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall." (I Corinthians 10:12)

"Do now allow the situation determine your decisions. Be guided in every facet or aspect of living by the word of God.

"I'll be neutral," was the answer of a politician. Pilate was too weak to take a positive stand for Christ, yet too fearful to deny him altogether. Therefore, he played the part of a coward. He tried to be neutral. This is an impossible position. Jesus said, "He that is not with me is against me, and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad." (Matthew 12:30)

Sometimes people take the position of neutrality today with Christ. Some say they are convinced the need to obey the gospel, but are waiting on a husband or wife. Some who have obeyed the first principles of the gospel and have fallen away from faithfulness, say, "I want to go to church, but I am waiting on my mate." Jesus says that neutrality will not be accepted.

What is your attitude toward Christ? If you are in sin you need to obey Christ today.
